

Please do not cancel the no call list. We deserve our rights to privacy and the telemarketers get so bad that it is almost harrasement. When you tell them not to call they call anyway. It has been nice and peaceful since the no call list started. There are other ways to advertise than by bothering people by phone.

Thank you!